

MISSOULA CHILDREN'S THEATRE

A PRODUCTION OF MCT, INC.

"While children enjoy their week with the Missoula Children's Theatre, they're also developing critical life skills such as teamwork, communication and social skills, and self-discipline," said MCT executive director, Michael McGill, "Our mission is the development of life skills in children through participation in the performing arts."

FREE Auditions
Monday, September 9, 3:30-5:30 p.m.

FREE Rehearsals
Tuesday-Friday, September 10-13
3:30-8 p.m. (with a dinner/snack break from
5:30-6 p.m.)

Performances
Saturday, September 14
3 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.
Sugar Land Auditorium, 226 Lakeview Drive
*Minimal ticket fee at the door for performances.

Sugar Land residents ages 5-18 are invited to participate in an exciting opportunity to be cast in the play Rapunzel. The Missoula Children's Theater is coming to the Imperial Park Recreation Center for a week-long workshop. MCT actor/directors will coach the youth for four days in September, in preparation for two Saturday performances.

For more information and additional scheduling, please call 281-275-2885.